10-12 mins

God is rapt in us. Now have fun being wrapped up.

What you need:

- a long stick such as a broomstick
- two new rolls of toilet paper
- a timer

How to play:

- thread the toilet paper rolls onto the broomstick
- choose two volunteers. The volunteers take hold of either end of the stick.
- get the children to pair up and compete against their partner
- each player has to unroll the toilet paper and wrap themselves into a mummy as fast as they can, trying to wrap themselves as completely as possible
- if the paper breaks they have to start from scratch again
- they don't stop until they are completely wrapped or all the paper is used or the timer goes off

The goal of the game:

- to be completely wrapped within a minute
